

What The Frog ($WTF)

White Paper

Date: 2024/9/21

A Leap into the Future of Memes, Money, and Mischief

Welcome, meme lovers, crypto degenerates, and society's satire lovers! You've just stumbled upon the most revolutionary, ribbit-tickling, meme-fueled white paper in history. What The Frog ($WTF) isn't just a meme coin—it's a cultural revolution, born from the steamy swamps of adult entertainment and the slimy underbelly of the blockchain.

In the beginning, there was porn—sweet, sweet porn. It's been the hidden force behind every major technological leap, from the internet to VR, and now, it's hopping into the blockchain with $WTF. If you're tired of boring, serious cryptocurrencies, you're in for a wild ride. Buckle up, and let's dive into the wonderfully wacky world of What The Frog!

Let's begin...

"Do you know who has driven the most technological advancements in modern times??"

“Porn Actresses!!!”

Hey there, everyone! I'm Diane, a porn actress who's on the verge of losing her job, and I'm here to spill a little secret—

In 1969, the U.S. Department of Defense, wanting to distribute some spicy pics to keep the soldiers entertained, invented the Internet. Who would've thought that a bit of erotica could lead to such astonishing results? It completely transformed human life...

Faster internet? Clearer videos? AR, VR, XR, blockchain, metaverse, AI, robots... All these advancements were born because of porn, and you can thank us for that.

Fast forward to today...

Satoshi Nakamoto invented blockchain to anonymously store his adult videos—he hid them so well that we can't even find him.

Sam Altman created ChatGPT and Sora just to mass-produce porn. But you've hurt us, Sam! AI digital humans are about to replace us!

Zuckerberg, stop fighting with Cook over VR, AR, and XR. Master porn and you'll own the metaverse. Also, how can your metaverse avatars not have lower bodies? No wonder your Metaverse couldn't get it up!

Elon Musk, let's be honest—how many adult videos have you watched to get all those kids? Never watched? Never watched? Come on, really?

We have made huge sacrifices and contributions to technological progress, yet we're facing unemployment. Meanwhile, those who contribute nothing to humanity—dogs, cats, frogs—achieve great success. Is that fair?

What The Fxxx!

Especially that extremely ugly frog—we hate frogs the most! They're always licking the moles on our faces and bodies with their sticky tongues—so gross!

What The Frog! ($WTF)

We've decided to issue a unique meme coin to ensure our contributions are recognized and respected.

Mission

“Let AI do the work, freeing up time for making love.”

Ten Demands

1. Create the world's largest digital human computing center.

Make AI digital versions for all AV actresses, allowing our digital selves to work 24/7, achieving true "lying down and earning."

Sam Altman, please support us fully and clear your karmic debts!

2. Earn money by watching adult videos.

Watching adult videos requires a lot of physical strength, passion, and life force, so viewers should be compensated. The more you watch, the more you earn. These people bear the heavy responsibility of human reproduction!

Elon, do you agree? Give us a thumbs up!

3. Launch a dedicated porn actress metaverse.

Let players interact with us through immersive games, making us appear vividly before you, integrating seamlessly into our virtual erotic world!

Zuckerberg, it's your turn to donate!

4. Establish the world's largest porn actress museum.

Hugh Hefner, Bob Guccione, Larry Flynt, Toru Muranishi, contribute your collections and share with the world!

Toru Muranishi, can you fundraise for us? Maybe with Takayuki Yamada?

5. Set up a porn NFT exchange.

Issue exclusive NFTs for porn actresses of all generations, protecting our digital rights and interests, commemorating our contributions.

CZ, Binance should at least have a porn actress section, right?

6. Establish a porn actress protection foundation.

Collaborate with the World Wildlife Fund (WWF) to prevent our jobs from being taken over by AI digital humans, preventing our extinction.

WWF : ...WTF???

7. Establish a global porn actress appreciation day.

on August 31st, where the world takes a day off to celebrate with carnivals, honoring our contributions and achievements to humanity.

Hello, Coca-Cola! You must support us! We've often used your glass bottles as props, promoting you for free!

8. 9. 10 Haven't thought of it yet...

Disclaimer

What The Frog is not just some worthless cryptocurrency. It represents the freedom of spirit for people who can shed their hypocritical moral masks, face their inherent desires honestly, love life, cherish life, and enjoy life—this is something AI can never replace.

What The Frog also bears the heavy responsibility of human reproduction. We will accelerate the wheel of technological advancement, continuously promoting progress in humanity and entertainment.

Join us to create history—and enjoy all the freedoms exclusively for adults in the process!

P.S. You can remain anonymous (whispering).

One more thing,

Trump loves us, and we support Trump!
Let's Fuck! Fuck! Frog!
